

COMPANY INFORMATION

Amalfi Estates is one of Los Angeles' leading independent real estate agencies. Headquartered in Pacific Palisades, we have been in existence since 1995.

Our mission is to provide exclusive representation to both buyers and sellers. Our service is founded on the question: "Is it in our client's best interest?"

Both Amalfi and owner Anthony Marguleas have been featured throughout the media, including on ABC TV, the Fine Living Network, the "Home & Garden Show," on radio, in the Wall Street Journal and the Los Angeles Times, in national real estate publications, and in international magazines. With extensive knowledge of the California real estate scene, Marguleas is a highly sought-after commentator on industry issues and trends.

At Amalfi Estates we are proud to be one of the most technologically advanced real estate companies in California. This edge makes us more efficient and effective than our competitors. Our award-winning website, www.AmalfiEstates.com, (voted "Best Real Estate Agency Site" by RealtyTimes.com, the leading real estate news site on the Internet) is just one way our clients benefit from our knowledge and expertise. As part of the company's ongoing mission to inform the consumer, our website features easily accessible information on every aspect of buying or selling a home, from details on local schools to the most current real estate contracts.

Finally, we promise you the utmost in privacy, confidentiality, and security in your transaction, just as our many celebrity clients have experienced working with us. As your exclusive agent, we will help you become supremely informed on the value, strengths, and weaknesses of both your chosen property and its neighborhood. And because we are trained negotiators, we often save our buyers thousands of dollars and help our sellers get the best price for their home.
